2011 Terms of Enrollment

(Enrollment applications are conditional upon acceptance and the agreement to the following terms):

- Tuition: includes supervision, meals, laundry, in-camp medical attention and daily snacks.
- Medical: prescription medicines, special doctor fees or hospital care are not included and a credit card is required (below) for these purposes. All campers are required to have health insurance.
- Trips: overnight adventure trips build character and are awesome! One standard trip is included for 4, 5 & 6 week campers. Premium trips incur a nominal upgrade fee. Trip schedule and costs will be available in spring.
- Deposit: unless otherwise stated, an enrollment deposit of $450 should accompany each enrollment application.
- Payment: After deposit, camp fees are due as follows: 20% January 1; 20% March 1; balance June 1. Unless checks are mailed in advance, the credit card number below will be used to make payments. Late payments will accrue at 10% interest per year and parent or guardian will also be responsible for all legal and reasonable collection fees.
- Cancellation and refunds: All 2011 deposits are 100% refundable by November 1st. No refunds after November 1st.
- Optional expenses: airport transport, store, crafts or programs/trips purchased on account or chosen by the camper.
- Extending camp and late or early arrival: Space permitting, campers may extend their stay, space permitting, at the weekly rate. There will be no refund or prorating of fees for campers arriving late or leaving early. Registering for the most number of weeks up-front ensures the best price.
- Tuition Insurance: Strongly recommend since there are no refunds after November 15th. Insurance for cancellation for ANY REASON or for specific reason(s) are both available. The "Any Reason" insurance must be purchased well in advance (contact Camp Protector for details; www.campprotector.com).
- Wholesome Environment: Camp is a wholesome environment for children. Campers should dress and act accordingly. Camp uniform is a camp logo t-shirt plus a pair of blue, white or khaki shorts (or pants on cold or rainy days). Clothing or swimwear that is too revealing or inappropriate (i.e. spaghetti straps, string bikinis, pants or shorts too low etc.), in the sole discretion of the camp director, will not be permitted.
- Camp Uniform: Minimum of 5 camp logo t-shirts are required. Campers wear the camp uniform daily need to wear except for optional shirt Fridays and camp designated theme days.
- Camper Behavior: Directors reserve the right to dismiss, without tuition refund, any camper, whose behavior, in the camp director's sole discretion, is inappropriate, harmful to the camper or the camp community.
- Making Camp Affordable: $7,500 for scholarships and $5,000 for financial aid are available for those who qualify. Every effort will be made to make camp affordable for those who want to attend.
- Discounts: Discounts may not be combined (e.g. early bird, closing day, CIT, sibling, referral, etc.).
- Counselor in Training (CIT) tuition: The CIT tuition benefit is considered a form of a discount. A mandatory CIT leadership development trip is separate from tuition and is $150 additional.
- Permissions: Parent(s) or legal guardian grants camper permission to participate in all camp activities, choose optional trips and programs and make purchases on account in the camp store. Some optional activities chosen may include out of camp trips, riding, crafts or other programs.
- Spending money: No more than $10 to $20 cash is suggested. The money is for a possible cabin group trip to the marina or a stop at a gas station on an out of camp trip. The cash is kept in the camper file for whenever the camper needs it.
- Promotional Permissions: The parent(s) or legal guardian authorizes the camp to use any of the camper and family photographs, names, quotes, and video for promotional materials (such as videos, brochures, flyers, displays, etc.).
- Property Damage: Parent(s) or legal guardian will be held responsible for the payment of repairs or replacement of the camps' and/or other individuals' property or equipment damaged by the camper due to negligence or misbehavior (e.g. graffiti on new cabin interior).

Please do not send food or gum.... it will be confiscated! All care packages will be subject to inspection. This is a health issue and thank you for cooperating
